

Reflection of My Favorite Paragraph * From My Writing Piece

Components	0-1	3	5
1. Transition	None or weak transition	Transition used, could be stronger	Strong and appropriate transition used
2. Topic Sentence	Topic sentence is not clear or relate to thesis	Attempt to write a clear topic sentence that relates to thesis	Clear topic sentence that relates to thesis
3. Key Supporting Details	No evidence, or evidence that is not relevant	Evidence from article that supports thesis	Strong, clear evidence from article that supports thesis
4. Explanation (My thinking)	Attempt made to explain evidence, but unrelated to thesis or unclear	Somewhat explains how evidence supports thesis	Clearly explains how evidence supports thesis
5. Conventions *COPS Capitalization Organized sentences Punctuation Spelling	Evidence or editing resulting in 6 or more errors	Evidence or editing resulting in 2-5 or less errors	Evidence or editing resulting in 1-3 errors
Word Choice Challenge: (In PIECE): Revised 5 or more words and replaced words with more specific & advanced vocabulary (Rough draft must reflect this revision)		Original Word/Paragraph 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.	Replaced Word/Paragraph 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.
Total

Writing Reflection:

Something I'm most proud of with this paragraph is (and explain why) _____

One area above I'd like to continue growing is _____