7. The girls basketball team traveled to Highlands last night for their last conference game.

The 8th grade team put up a tough fight but fell short. Avery Lee was unstoppable on offense, scoring 12 points. Sarah Kapsa, Emilee Tydus and Reese Cassidy contributed points as well. Nora Grill and Grace Twitty played a great, aggressive defensive game. The 8th grade finished conference with a 5-6 record.

The 7th grade team beat Highlands last night 20-17. Top scorers were Abbie Scouffas and Jane Erickson with 6 points apiece. Elena Bailey, Maddie Shishman, and Jhanian Wicker-Harris contributed buckets too.

Not only did the 7th grade girls' basketball team win last night and finish with a 10-1 record, but they are officially conference champions. This is the first conference win the team has seen since 1996... so it has been 26 years since a championship win for 7th grade. A hug congratulations to all of the girls on the team.

Both teams start their playoff tournament this weekend. 8th grade plays Willow Springs tonight and 7th grade plays tomorrow against McClure. If you see a girls basketball player in the hallway wish them good luck! Go Tigers!
