BIRTHDAYS:       None today

1. Dare to Dream will be meeting this Thursday (December 14) with Ms. Ramirez in room 102A.
2. Would you like to wish a Happy Holiday to a friend in a fun way? Buy a Candy Cane Gram during lunch in the cafeteria. You can write a personalized message and have Candy Cane Grams delivered to your friends during MP the last day of school before winter break. Candy Cane Grams are $1 and will be on sale until Thursday, December 21st. Buy your Candy Cane Gram today and spread some holiday cheer.
3. Today during MP you will receive 10 tiger stripes worth in recognition of all the good choices you have made by being safe, ready and respectful. You can now earn 10 more tiger stripes on Wednesday December 20th next week during MP by continuing to be ready, safe and respectful by staying referral free from Thursday December 14 to Wednesday December 20th. Remember if you received a referral during Phase one it won't count for this new week, and remember that on Friday December 22nd , you will be able to participate in our PBIS multiple activity celebration in recognition of all the good choices you have made.
4. Want to make a difference for someone in need during the holiday season? Help keep a child warm during these frigid winter months by sponsoring a blanket for Project Linus! Blankets are $10 to sponsor, and you can go in with a few friends to sponsor one blanket if you choose. Your generosity will be recognized during the school-wide Project Linus event during the school day on Friday, December 15th. All blankets will be donated to the Ronald McDonald House Charity, which provides lodging and comfort for seriously ill children. Use the flyers handed out in advisory to attach your donation, or label your donation with your name and "Project Linus" and hand it in to your advisor, the front office, or Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Ingwersen. Donations can still be made next week, as well!

5. The basketball teams traveled to play the McClure White teams. The 7th grade played great team defense and also great scoring from Galloping Grant Kostrava scoring easily under the basket and great post moves from Develle the Phantom Brittmon that led the team to a great victory.

The 8th grade team also played great defense, and great outside shooting from Billy Buckets Bach that made it rain with tree point shooting, Owen the Tasmanian Diablo Cherry was at it again with great defense and taking the ball and scoring layups, and finally with his best performance of the season was Sugar Sunshine Shane Curtin with great outside shooting to lead the team to a great victory.

6. Seventh Graders attending today's Shedd field trip need to report to the cafeteria at the end of announcements.
