Want to learn more about increasing your writing skills and talents? Come join Gurrie Writers Club for our initial interest meeting tomorrow from 3:15-4:00 p.m. in the culinary arts room. Gurrie Writers Club supports writers of all levels and writing interests: from creative writing and short stories to nonfiction, poetry, and journaling. Members meet to discuss new ideas, provide constructive criticism, and most importantly, work cooperatively in the production of writing projects. If you have any questions or need more information about Gurrie Writers Club, please see Mr. Walsen. See everyone Tuesday!
