1. Attention all athletes! Tryouts for boys volleyball are on Monday, March 16th in the main gym from 3:30 to 5:15 PM. You must have a signed tryout waiver form or an active sports physical. Hope to see you there!
2. We are busy preparing for the energy carnival. If anyone would like to help out we are meeting Thursdays after school in Mr. Eigels room till 4pm. We will also have meeting times during 7th and 8th grade lunches on Wed, Thurs & Friday. See Mr. Eigel or Mrs. Kowynia for a pass.
3. Student ambassadors remember to be at the meeting during lunch in the library conference room during lunch today.
4. Starting next week on March 16th we will start our PBIS incentive prior to spring break. Your advisors will be going over the incentive with you this week. Here are some key dates for the PBIS incentive:
Wednesday March 18 you will receive 10 tiger stripes if you are referral free.
Thursday March 19th PBIS store will be open in the cafeteria.
Friday March 20th we will have the PBIS celebration with multiple activities.
If you have any questions please ask your advisors.
5. Michael Frankhauser and his Synowiec/LaBud advisory has won a free pizza party from Enzo's Pizza in Countryside! Congrats Michael and thanks for buying tickets to the Gurrie Winter Raffle! We have 60 other prizes winners who can pick up their prizes in the school office tomorrow. AND there are still 90 more prizes to raffle off NEXT Friday including an Amazon Alexa, a Comfy, a Drone and another advisory pizza party. Each raffle ticket is $5, and all the money goes to fund Gurrie school programs. Buy your tickets on Friday during the Honor Roll Breakfast or during lunch.
6. Attention all Battle of the Books participants, tomorrow our two winning teams will be competing in the Intra-school battle against Park, Pleasantdale, Highlands and McClure. Let's show them our Gurrie support and pride by wearing your black Battle shirts tomorrow. Go Readers!

7. Congrats to all of the Underwater Robotics STEM club members on their first competition of the season – the Gurrie Intramural. The 4 teams tested out their ROVS in tasks to represent fixing a power supply underwater, retrieving sponge samples for study, transplanting coral samples to a nursery for growth and testing sediment contaminants in the water. The 4 teams did exceptionally well and work through problem solving up until their competition times. In 4th place with a strong 35 points was team “Sea Cucumbers” made up of Ava Bailey, Jordyn Hoffenberg and Siena Rizzo Garcia. In 3rd place with a strong 65 points was “Team CAWAbunga” made up of Caden Strack, Alita Folkening, Brandon Betancourt and Ethan Mason. In 2nd place with 75 points team “MPNN” made up of Davey Paulus, Cristian Montano, Daniel Macias and Sebastian Garcia. In 1st place and setting a Gurrie all time record for points scored at an intramural was team “MarineSavior” made up of David Eterno, Matthew Mattucci, Max Itkowitz, and Ryan Nowak with a whopping 135 points scored on tasks. Congrats to ALL on this first competition. STEM club will meet tomorrow, Thursday from 3:15 to 4 to celebrate this competition and plan for the road to regionals. See all STEM club member then.
8. Attention all interested soccer players – did you miss the informational meeting yesterday but still want the opportunity to join the team after spring break? Stop by Coach Halper or Coach Motto’s room to get the info packets and necessary parent forms for participation. You MUST have a valid athletic physical on file by March 31st to play.
9. The 7th grade girls volleyball had a great game against Willow Springs. Great serves from Katie Brejcha, Maddie Buzek and Kate Badrov. Good tips from Kate Carolan and Kara LaRocco. Maddie Price with the winning serve over the net. Now they are ready to play Highlands.
10. The 8th grade girls volleyball had a good game against Willow Springs. Izzy Reese as always setting up the team for them saucy meals. Maddie, Claire, Lydia and Grace really gave the other team their saucy skills and showed them what they can cook up. Passing the meals to give the setters were Sarah, Caitlyn, Juliana, Hannah and McKayla. Without them who would be serving the meals. Aldair and Daniel were there to inspect the 5-star dishes. And they were good! Now the 8th grade is ready to give Highlands their hot sauce. Tomorrow is a blackout game.
