6. Yesterday the girls took on Highlands. It was a Pink Out! All of the girls wore pink in support of fighting cancer!!! 7th grade came out and played first. Highlands jumped out to an early lead, but the Tigers did not give up! Izzi Wirtz rallied the squad and made some early baskets. Maddie Rowen and Poppy Graber couldn't be silenced either as they drained some big shots as both girls led the team in scoring! Despite those efforts, the Tigers fell short and lost to Highlands.

8th grade followed that game seeking some revenge from an early season loss. 8th grade jumped out to a commanding lead behind Lily Prendergast. The defense played well, two with big plays from Karen Martinez and Hannah Eskra. The Tigers prevailed and scored a season-high 37 points in a BIG VICTORY!

Game play resumes on Saturday as the Tigers prepare for the Hodgkins Park District Tournament. Go Tigers!

7. Attention adventurers!!! Gurrie's RPG Club will meet after school TODAY until 4pm in the culinary arts room. Please remember to bring your character sheets and chromebooks. There is still time to join the adventure! Please see Mr. Walsen or Mr. Schwartz for more information! See everyone after school!
