From the Principal's Desk

Greetings from Gurrie!

Believe it or not, Trimester 1 has ended, and we are one-third of the way through the school year.

I am very proud of the way our students started the year and continue to focus on being ready, respectful, and safe.

Looking ahead, 8th grade students and parents will be involved with the transition process to high school. On November 14, LT held its Class of 2027 Kick-Off. Students and families had the opportunity to attend presentations on academic programs as well as learn about elective course offerings, athletics, and activities and were also able to tour South campus. On January 18, LT will host a virtual meeting to discuss the course registration process, share the Academic Program Guide, and elective course selection. On January 25, LT will host Future Freshman Night. Class of 2027 students and families will have the opportunity to attend presentations on academic programs as well as learn about elective programs and course offerings through showcases, demonstrations, and connecting with LTHS students and teachers. On January 26, families will receive an email with your child's placement letter and link to a Google Form that will be used to make elective course selections. The placement letter will detail your child's academic level placements for English, Math, Science, and in some cases, World Language classes. The letter will also include information regarding the process for completing a level change and making elective selections. In early February (date TBD), LTHS counselors will be here at Gurrie to meet with students and confirm elective selections and also review their freshman year schedule. Then in the spring, the online registration process for LT will begin which will include the submission of your child's birth certificate, health paperwork, and verification of residency.

In October students participated in the Signs of Suicide program which provides important information regarding depression and how to help a friend (or themselves) who may be struggling. Each student learned about the ACT acronym (acknowledge, care, tell). In the event that a friend is struggling students were taught to ACT. Acknowledge - acknowledge that their friend has a problem. Care - let their friend know that they care about them and are supportive. Tell - tell a trusted adult about their friend's struggle to get any needed help and support. Students also learned that depression is a treatable illness and that suicide is a preventable tragedy that can occur as a result of untreated depression. In addition, students learned the signs of serious depression or possible suicide in themselves or a friend and how to help themselves or others by taking the simple step to ACT. These discussions are not easy ones to have but students were engaged and attentive to the content and instruction, asking great questions and participating in discussions with the presenter. According to a report in 2015 by NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) suicide is the third leading cause of death in youth ages 10-24 while 90% of those who died by suicide had an underlying mental illness, typically depression. In 2014, a World Health Organization study found depression to be the number one cause of illness and disability in adolescents worldwide. We are grateful to Elyssa's Mission for bringing this important program to Gurrie and providing factual and useful information to students, staff, and parents.

As we head into the Thanksgiving break, I want to wish all of our families a safe and happy holiday and as always, let you know how much I am thankful to be a part of the Gurrie and District 105 community.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Ed Hood

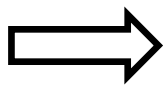

Health Notes.... Reminders

Winter is coming and so are seasonal illnesses. Parents are reminded to be watchful for flu symptoms in their children. Parents of children with asthma or chronic disease should have already consulted with their doctors regarding their need for flu vaccine.

Remember, sometimes we feel “less than great” but we are still able to do our job. A student may attend school with a cold, but needs to follow good hygiene practices. Cough drops are allowed at school as they do not fall under our medication policy. A cough lasting more than two weeks should be checked.

Remember to avoid giving aspirin for the flu due to its correlation to Reye’s Syndrome. Other reasons to keep a child home are fever, vomiting, diarrhea, strep throat (must have completed at least 24 hours of medication before returning), conjunctivitis (pink eye), and ear infections. Please do not send a sick child to school and endanger him or the welfare of others. Remember that if your child has shown symptoms of any of these illnesses in the morning, chances are that they will not improve as the day goes on. Please keep your child home in those cases. If your child becomes ill at school, or has come to school ill, you must make arrangements to either pick them up or have someone pick them up. Sick children cannot be cared for in the nurse’s office for an entire day and then sent home on the bus. This jeopardizes the health of the entire school community.

Important Announcement for Families with Students with Food Allergies

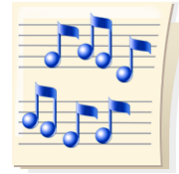

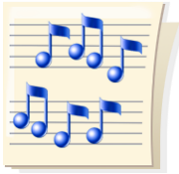

Some food at school sponsored special occasions may not be nut free. Parents/guardians may call the school to gather more information regarding foods that may be served at a specific event, or they may send an alternative food item with their child to eat.

A copy of the food allergy policy is available on the District website.

Books Make Great Holiday Gifts...

During the upcoming holiday season, remember books as gifts to children. Books last longer than most toys and games and they benefit the child. Studies show that children improve their reading ability by reading a lot. The gift of a book to a child tells that child that you value books and reading, and helps to create a lifelong appreciation of reading.
