*Good readers are always asking themselves questions and making predictions about what they’re reading. As you read a paragraph, a page or a chapter allow yourself time to “wonder.”

*Questioning helps you understand what you read. You should ask questions before, during and after reading.

Here are a few examples of questions you may ask as you read a book:

I wonder…
I was confused when…
How could that be?
Why do you think?
Who?
What?
Where?
When?
